Background

- A Te Runanga o Te Rarawa, was a charitable trust established in 1988, and utilised by Te Rarawa throughout its Treaty of Waitangi negotiation process (Original Rūnanga).
- B Te Rarawa achieved settlement of its historical Treaty claims and entered into a Deed of Settlement with the Crown on 28 October 2012.
- C Due to Crown requirements, the Crown would not settle assets on a charitable trust. Accordingly, Te Rarawa was required to establish a separate trust to receive settlement assets on behalf of Te Rarawa.
- D A new entity named, Te Rūnanga o Te Rarawa was established by deed of trust on 17 October 2012 (2012 Deed) and amended in 2014 to administer the affairs of Te Rarawa including: acting as the Mandated Iwi Organisation pursuant to the Māori Fisheries Act 2004, acting as the Iwi Aquaculture Organisation pursuant to the Māori Commercial Aquaculture Claims Settlement Act 2004; and to receive the Te Rarawa Treaty of Waitangi historical claim settlement and any other settlements or resources that Te Rarawa may, from time to time, be entitled to.
- E The Te Rarawa Claims Settlement Act 2015 received royal assent on 22 September 2015 and came into force on 17 December 2015. It provided for the dissolution of the Original Rūnanga and the transfer of assets and liabilities from the Original Rūnanga to Te Rūnanga o Te Rarawa.
- F After a consultation process spanning a number of years, the Members have agreed to amend the 2012 Deed by replacing the 2012 Deed with this Deed, in its entirety.
